

FLASK

THERMOcafé™
by THERMOS

How did you obtain the object?

I brought it in order to save money on buying University tea and soft drinks and to encourage me to drink with less sugar.

What's your favourite feature of the object?

I can pour liquid without removing the secondary lid.

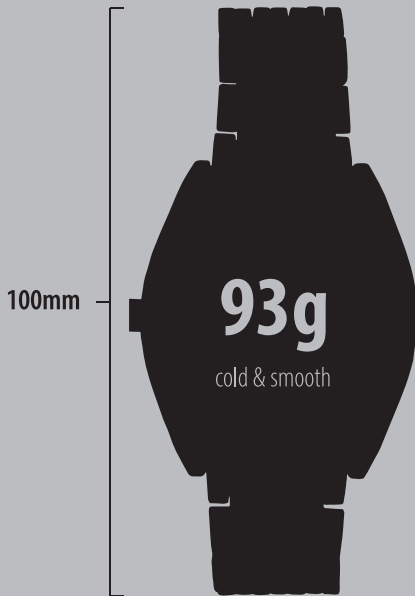

Where can I obtain the object?

I purchased the flask in ASDA last year but can't confirm that it's still being sold there, the flask has no model name so finding it online is a headache of a task.

LUCKY WATCH

VER ISLAND

Made in (God knows where)

How did you obtain the object?

It was gifted to me by my girlfriend.

What's your favourite feature of the object?

The logo on the watch can be viewed from any angle and it grants good luck.

Where can I obtain the object?

I have no idea where it was obtained and i can't find it online.

SUITCASE

How did you obtain the object?

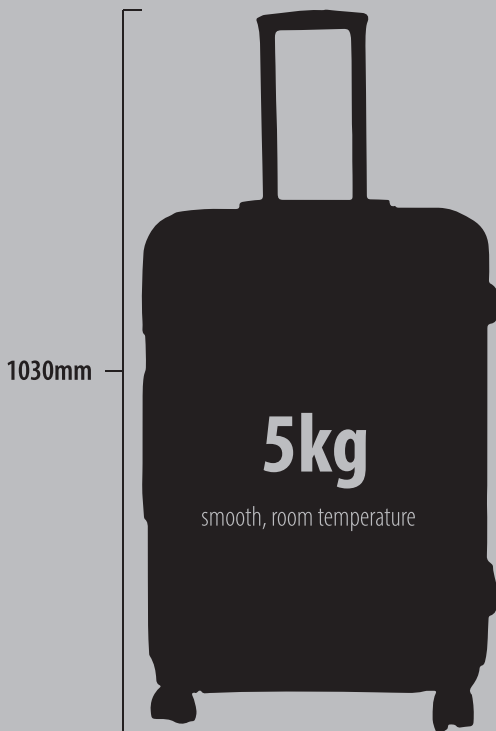

I brought the suitcase in a small market, it looked to be the most reliable out the bunch.

What's your favourite feature of the object?

It came with a massive sleeve I can use to protect the suitcase from scratches when under the care of staff.

Where can I obtain the object?

The suitcase is no longer available on the manufacture website, but you can see promotion for the suitcase in the site banner, the one shown is a blue variant of my own lime green suitcase.
